Man's Tooth Power

It is a fact that the average man's tooth power is only about 100 pounds. This is why the average man's teeth are so weak. The average man's teeth are so weak that they cannot even bite through a piece of hard candy. The average man's teeth are so weak that they cannot even bite through a piece of hard candy. The average man's teeth are so weak that they cannot even bite through a piece of hard candy.
